

Statement

I work with themes of impermanence while relating them to issues regarding aging, "ideal beauty", sexuality, eternal youth, disfigurement, disease, healing and cosmetic surgery. Ideas are also drawn from African sculpture, ritual objects and painting. Using organic and inorganic materials, photography, painting and sculpture— the work is a mix of everlasting and temporary. The subjects are caught by chance in a process of transformation, and rendered static.